

Online Learning: A Campus Conversation
Wednesday, October 24, 2012
Corwin Pavilion, UCSB

Program

Goal: To move toward developing a vision for online instruction at UCSB by gathering informed input from faculty, students, administrators, and staff.

- Inform the campus where we are already
- Identify concerns of various campus constituencies
- Provide an opportunity for people to feel heard
- Identify additional conversations that need to happen

- I. Introduction and Preliminary Remarks - David Lea (2:00 PM - 5 min)
- II. Overview of Blended and Online Instruction - John Yun (2:05 PM - 15 min)
- III. Online Learning at UCSB: Four Snapshots (2:20 PM - 40 min)
 - A. Jon Sonstelie - Economics
 - B. Chris Dean - Writing Program
 - C. Jeffrey Stewart - Black Studies
 - D. Kalju Kahn-Chemistry
- IV. Cookie Break (3:00 PM - 5 min)
- V. Facilitated Group Discussions at Tables (3:05PM - 30 min)
 - A. What do we want online instruction to look like at UCSB?
 - B. What pitfalls in online instruction would we want to avoid at UCSB?
 - C. What do you see as issues with the implementation of online learning at UCSB?
- VI. Share Group Input (Gallery Walk) (3:35 PM - 10 min)
- VII. Additional Group Conversation (3:45 PM - 10 min)
 - A. What are the top three priorities (issues, questions) we should focus on at UCSB right now?
 - B. Any additional thoughts?
- VIII. Closing Remarks - David Lea (3:55 PM - 5 min)